Dear «W04_SALUTATION»:

Thank you for your recent gift to Wabash College! Your support is part of an important effort to provide Wabash students with unparalleled opportunities to learn and grow during their four years on the Wabash College campus.

Annual gifts from alumni, parents, and friends are used to fund scholarships and financial aid, ensure that Wabash is able to attract the best teachers, provide vastly increased opportunities for Wabash men to engage in off-campus study, and maintain the campus and our facilities, to name just a few.

Indeed, you and all the other generous people who contribute to the College position Wabash to do an even more effective job of educating young men to think critically, act responsibly, lead effectively, and live humanely.

Please save this letter as a receipt and verification that Wabash has not provided any goods or services in exchange for your gift.

Again, let me thank you for your generosity to Wabash College and our students. It is a pleasure to work with you in this great effort of educating Wabash men.

Sincerely,

Joseph Klen '97
Director of Annual Giving
